Academic Journal Publication Graduation Requirement Review Form

According to Article 22 of the Ph.D. Program Academic Regulations of the Graduate Institute of Finance:

"Students who have passed their dissertation proposal defense, published (or had accepted) two finance-related papers in relevant peer-reviewed international academic journals or TSSCI journals during their doctoral studies, and passed the graduation criteria review of this Institute, may apply for the doctoral degree examination.

Any given journal paper may only be used by one student to fulfill the doctoral program requirements of the Department. If other co-authors are doctoral students of this Institute, they must submit a consent form waiving their right to use the same paper; furthermore, the paper must be a new work completed after entering the doctoral program and published under the name of NYUST."
